Nurses in the Educational Setting

- Teachers are DOE Licensed.
- Teachers use “Assessment” to evaluate how a student is progressing. (Correcting papers, standardized testing)
- Teachers communicate with parents regarding their students.
- Teachers keep records on their students in their class.
- Teachers write lesson plans for students.
- Teachers attend TEAM, 504 and pupil study meetings regarding students progress.
- Teachers need PDP’s for continuing education.
- Teachers use every possible “teachable moment” to educate students.

- Nurses are BORN (Board of Registration in Nursing) Licensed, DOE Licensed, CPR/AED & First Aid certified.
- Nurses use “Assessment” to evaluate a student's health (Checking for fever, blood pressure, blood sugar, vision, hearing etc).
- Nurses communicate with parents, teachers, doctors, agencies, and specialists.
- Nurses keep records on every student including all state mandated screenings (200-1100 students per building…plus staff).
- Nurses write individualized Health Care Plans for students with medical/health conditions and monthly reports for Department of Public Health.
- Nurses attend TEAM, 504 and pupil study meetings to assist teachers with medical knowledge regarding their students.
- Nurses need PDP’s (Educator) as well as CEU’s (Nursing licensure) for continuing education.
- Every interaction between the nurse and student/staff member includes “teaching/education” regarding health, illness, wellness, first aid, etc.

 Nurses are Licensed to Administer Medication