School Nurse “Best Practices”
Poster Presentations
Tuesday June 27th, 2006

Please share your accomplishments with your colleagues! Individual or District-wide projects, educational programs, wellness strategies for students and/or staff, best practices…..any of these!
Posters should be tri-fold to stand up on their own.

To reserve your space (or your District’s space), fill out the following form and mail by June 10th to
Kathy Hassey
School Health Institute, Northeastern University
145 South Bedford Rd.
Burlington, MA  01803
OR
FAX to 781-238-8433

Name of Presenter(s)
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Phone number(s) (_____) _____________ work
(_____) _____________ home

Email
________________________________________________________________________

School District
________________________________________________________________________

Subject of Poster Presentation
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Prizes will be awarded!